ADONSOU KEKELI DIANE

Applications developer

+228 96 28 50 94 | dianeadonsou9@gmail.com | BP 20592, Lomé - TOGO

About me

Rigorous, self-motivated web developer with strong analytical skills, specializing in digitizing business processes. Looking to expand my skills in Business Process Management, I am seeking new opportunities to deepen my expertise, keep learning, and contribute to innovative digital projects.

Education

- Management Information Systems On going
Saylor University
- Bachelor of Science in Software Engineering 2026
Centre Informatique et de Calcul / Université de Lomé

Skills

- Development: Python, JavaScript
- Frameworks: FastAPI, Django, Next.js, Tailwind CSS
- Object-Oriented Programming (OOP): Java Swing, C++
- Databases: MySQL, PostgreSQL
- Tools: Git, GitHub Actions, Docker
- Analysis & Modeling: UML, Merise, BPMN
- ERP Integration & Workflows: Odoo, Form.io
- Additional Skills: Photoshop, CapCut, Canva, Community Management

Experiences

Applications developer → digi.job Since July 2026
- Gathered and analyzed business requirements from government ministries and public sector agencies.
- Mapped and modeled business processes (As-Is / To-Be) using BPMN.
- Designed and deployed dynamic forms to digitize public services.
- Configured complex business workflows and procedures in Odoo.

Applications developer intern → digi.job July 2025 - January 2026
- Realization of a wiki for internal knowledge centralization for digi.job (Bachelor's degree project).
- Mapped and digitized public services using BPMN, Total.js from Scratch.

Web developer → Ecole Polytechnique de Lomé July - October 2024
- Developed the backend architecture for the school's information system.
- Implemented a secure authentication system with role-based access control.
- Collaborated with the frontend team to improve user interface design.

Mobile developer intern → Digital Inspiration May - June 2024
- Developed mobile app interfaces for Android using Kotlin and Jetpack Compose.

Other projects
- Backend design of a room management system for EPL with Django, ticket and bus management system for Sotral in Java Swing, and a restaurant management and billing system in C++
- Development of a website for a non-profit organization
- Development of a complete library management web application (in progress)

228 Code Challenge 2024 → ATD : Tied for 3rd place (Women's Category) in real-world problem solving using Python algorithms.

Volunteering

- Active member of Women Tech Makers Lomé, GDG Lomé, CNCG Lomé, and Tdev communities
- Active member of NGOs UJPOD (Union des Jeunes Pour le Développement) and VICE TOGO
- International reciprocity volunteer mission (French's Service Civique) in France from October 2024 to June 2025

Key Strengths: autonomy, teamwork, organizational skills, adaptability

Interests: Human psyche, volunteering, DIY

Languages: French (Native), English (Fluent)